Nextbook

We are always looking for the book it is necessary to read next.

Saul Bellow

Jewish Literature
A reading and discussion series in America's libraries
Congratulations on your grant!

Rose Novil
Professor, Library Services
Ray Hartstein Campus

“Let’s Talk About It”
Jewish Literature Grant
from the American Library Association

Oakton Community College
Bringing new programs to Oakton
Office of Grants and Alternative Funding

AJL Proceedings 2016
Oakton Reads: 2016 Session
A guide to accompany the Spring Literature Series

Essay and Discussion Guides
- Getting to Know the Books
- Presenter Tips
- Questions for Mathematician's Shiva
- Maimonides' Daughter Questions
- Betrayals Questions
- Questions for Officer and A Spy
- Book of Jonah

Featured Books and Meeting Dates

Oakton Reads: Jewish Literature

Spring 2016
Wednesdays, 7-8:30 p.m., Room A149/152, Skokie

The Library at Oakton presents a five-part series of readings, lectures, and discussions led by 3 distinguished professors, David Schniederman, Josh Corey from Lake Forest College and Elaina Barron, English professor at OCC.

Meeting Date: February 3, 2016

The Mathematician’s Shiva by Stuart Rothenizer
ISBN: 9780143126317
Publication Date: 2014-09-02

Meeting Date: February 24, 2016

The Maimonides’ Daughter by Laurel Corona
ISBN: 9781402289490
Publication Date: 2014-03-04

Meeting Date: March 23, 2016

Get help from Oakton's Librarians!
- Ask a Librarian:
  Online Reference
- Email us:
  Question Form
- Call a Librarian:
  847-635-1644 (SFC)
  847-635-1674 (RHC)
- Text us:
  847-905-2745
- Circulation & Interlibrary Loan:
  847-635-1642 (SFC)
  847-635-1432 (RHC)
- Visit us on Facebook

Registration
Registration for this program is Free.
Registration begins November 18, 2015 and registration will be through the Alliance for Lifelong Learning. To register for this program:
1) Stop by the Alliance for Lifelong Learning office and register in person.
2) Go online here and register online.
The CRN for this course is 41170.
Themes

“Books By Israeli authors’

“Awards and Accolades”

“Neighbors: The World Next Door”

“Heroes and Heroines”

“A Mind of Her Own: Fathers and Daughters in a Changing World”

“Demons, Golems, and Dybbuks: monsters of the Jewish imagination”

“Between two worlds: stories of estrangement and homecoming”
Future
Contact Information

Rose Novil
Rnovil@oakton.edu

Debbie Feder
Dfeder@oakton.edu